PRACHUAB KHIRIKHAN lies 90 kms. south of Hua Hin. The most ritualism is THE CITY PILLAR situated at the Koa Luk rd. The pillar is very beautiful, on the top is prapromh which has 4 faces. And the most prominent landmark is a beachside hillrock name KHAO CHONG KRA CHOK (Mirror mountain) which supports a buddhist shrine on the top. When you are on the top you can see the bay & town. PRACHUAB BAY the beach is curve & beautiful. Tourists always come to watch the sunrise in the early morning time for the view is very fantastic. MANAO BAY which ahead from Prachuab bay in the Air Force 53. The beach is clean with clear water arounded with many trees can come to relax & swim. NATIONAL PARK SAM ROI YOD drive south to PRANBURI in the National Park, passing through pineapple plantations & sugar-cane to an unspoiled fishing village (Ban Bang Pu) Proceed by a simple fishing boat to a quiet beach. PHRAYANAKORN CAVE a beautiful "Sala" erected by King Rama V. Sensible walking shoe are essential. Also SAI & KAEWCAVE situated at the same park. This ancient caverns have petrified waterfall, monstrous limestone domes with dange stone tentacles. PA KLANG AOW The National forest is full of many kinds of tree species. Just only 2 kms. from Amphuer Bangsaparn, close to the sea. There is a lot big suitable for camping.

“When you come to Hua-Hin, we suggest you taste the following dishes.
FRESH SEAFOOD You can order a little spicy, medium or too spicy.
It made for cooking many style as Grilled, Baked, Steamed, Roasted, Fried or Deep fried. Thai food is filled with spices, herbs, fruits & vegetables such as chilli, garlic, lemon grass, ginger and coconut.
These ingredient & others like them are more than just good taste, and traditional Thai cooking has always involved more practical knowledge of HEALTHFUL FOODS than either decoration or flavor.

COCONUT is also a delicious, versatile fruit. Coconut milk provides good nutrition through its rich vitamin content. Its sweet flavour is often used in Thai cooking to off-set the tang felt from the spices. Coconuts have benefited the economy of both family and country. Thailand is one of the top world producers in terms of both quality and quantity of coconuts.

Close-up Side Trips

HUA HIN & CHA-AM

Less than four hours by road or rail from Bangkok, Hua Hin with its 3 kms. long white sand beach and small fishing village has long had an air of exclusivity thanks to favouritism by Thai royalty and Bangkok's wealthy elite. The area retains more of a Thai family ambience than other touristy destinations. The weekend getaway of Cha-am is a lovely long stretch of beach that has become popular with youthful groups of Bangkokians. Around 40 kms. from Petchaburi, the resort is extremely peaceful during weekdays, with plenty of delicious seafood to choose from.

Ban Samaw Riang or Ban Laem Hin

(Stony Point Village) the place was a remote fishing village by a rocky headland. Afterwards Prince Nares, a son of (Rama V) built a holiday palace at the beach and introduced the name Hua Hin, meaning Stone Head. Hua Hin is oldest smaller seaside holiday town.

Where's the tourist attractions.
